

Communist Revolution Review

Directions: After taking the notes and reading about the Great Leap Forward and the Cultural Revolution, you are to answer the following by using as few resources as possible. Good luck!

Word Bank

Each word will only be used one time.

Industry	Mao Zedong	Cultural Revolution
Communes	23	Little Red Book
1958	Backyard furnaces	Red Guards
Chiang Kai-Shek	Intellectuals	Agriculture
Communists	Dictatorship	2
	Nationalists

1. The Great Leap Forward was the attempt of _____ to modernize China in the 1950s.
2. This was a collection of Mao's quotations. _____
3. The Great Leap Forward was to modernize both _____ and _____.
4. Farms were converted into thousands of _____.
5. _____ left for Taiwan after the Nationalists were defeated by the Communists.
6. These _____ produced steel for the communes.
7. These people were targeted during the Cultural Revolution. _____
8. Between 1959 and 1962, around _____ million people died of starvation or of diseases related to starvation.
9. The Great Leap Forward began in _____.

10. In 1949, the _____ captured Beijing.
11. Although the People's Republic of China was communist, in reality, it was a _____.
12. These people were a group of teenagers and students formed in China in 1966 to attack the real or perceived enemies of Mao Zedong during the Cultural Revolution. _____

13. This event created mandatory reforms instituted by the government to eradicate (get rid of) precommunist Chinese culture and to halt (stop) the increasingly capitalist leanings of the Chinese people.
_____
14. The Cultural Revolution led to _____ million deaths, mostly the professional and educated class of Chinese people. Some professors were even killed by mobs of their own students.

15. Chiang Kai-Shek was the leader of the _____.